

Style Upgrades Law Firm's Partitions Again

Style first installed DORMA moveable walls at global law firm, Mayer Brown, back in 2007, soon after announcing its exclusive UK partnership with DORMA. Since then, the moveable walls have maintained their functionality, however after 12 years Mayer Brown decided to update its flexible space with the latest operable wall technology.

Working with MCM Architecture, and contractor Overbury, Style installed two semi-automatic Variflex partitions and three Skyfold vertical-rising, fully automatic systems, both taken from the comprehensive DORMA range of operable walls.

Mayer Brown visitors and staff now enjoy outstanding acoustic privacy between divided areas of 52dB Rw for the Variflex's and 59dB Rw for the Skyfolds, ensuring presentations, lectures and speeches can run concurrently and undisturbed.

Mayer Brown is a distinctively global law firm, uniquely positioned to advise the world's leading companies and financial institutions.

With extensive reach across four continents, Mayer Brown is the only integrated law firm in the world with approximately 200 lawyers in each of the world's three largest financial centres - New York, London and Hong Kong.

"Having worked with Mayer Brown previously, it's interesting to see the incredible advancements in our product range and overall proposition in the last 12 years," said Julian Sargent, Style's group managing director.

"The technology in moveable wall solutions has really moved on, with automated systems becoming far more the norm. Staff at Mayer Brown can now enjoy greater ease-of-operation when opening the space to cater for a large audience, or closing the walls to allow separate events to run in privacy."

The DORMA Variflex moveable walls both feature glass pass doors, allowing natural light into the corridor when the walls are in place. The Skyfold moveable walls descend effortlessly into position at the push of a button and are hidden in a ceiling cavity when not in use.

Each of the walls features a stylish Kvadrat Canvas fabric finish that complements the chic and modern interior design of the refurbished auditorium and the meeting rooms. www.style-partitions.co.uk
